Personal Credit Management for Teens

Personal Credit Management for Teens is designed to help teens plan a credit life that will steer clear of the pitfalls of credit. We are preparing our students to enter in the working population, but we should prepare them to be successful in all aspects of their life.

Christopher Rawley will teach a seminar exploring Personal Credit Management for Teens (and Adults) that will give the audience a fuller understanding of the topic and cover the topics below:

- ★ What is Credit?
- ★ Can I have too much?
- ★ How do I get it?
- ★ Credit Reports
- ★ Credit Products
- ★ Bankruptcy; no longer the end?
- ★ Why is it easier to get credit now than ever before?
- ★ What can I do to protect my credit history?
- ★ How do I get help if I get into trouble?
