Proactive Living - The Art of Career and Educational Management

- ★ How can all your students be come academically successful?
- ★ How can you impact graduation rates at your school?
- ★ How can you help jump start a student's motivation for school?
- ★ How can you assist students in setting career goals?
- ★ How can you lead students on a pathway toward a bright future?

Our students are entering a world of choice and change and too few of them are choosing. Doug Manning uses humor, stories, and the latest research to support his belief that career/life planning skills have become "need-to-have" capabilities in our oxymoronic world of constant change.

Join us for this informative session of the Texas Counselors' Network, which will also demonstrate how "more students with meaningful plans" is a key strategy that supports achievement of vital school outcomes.
